PRIVACY POLICY

WHAT'S INCLUDED IN THIS PRIVACY NOTICE?

The Welsh Pony and Cob Society is an equestrian society celebrating specific Welsh breeds of ponies and cobs.

This document (our "privacy notice") sets out information relating to how we use personal information relating to individuals we have dealings with, including our members, our customers, owners and breeders of Welsh ponies and cobs, website users and Welsh pony and cob enthusiasts. It also sets out information about what rights individuals have in relation to their personal information and various other matters required under data protection law.

In particular, this privacy notice provides information to individuals about how they can object to our use of their personal information, how they can withdraw any permissions they have given to us to enable us to process their personal information and how they can make a complaint.

This privacy notice contains the following sections:

WHO DOES THIS PRIVACY NOTICE APPLY TO?

This privacy notice applies to:

- our customers;
- our members (and individuals who apply to us to become a member of the Welsh Pony and Cob Society);
- individuals who apply to passport or list their animals through us;
- individuals who judge equestrian events on our behalf (and individuals who apply to us to become Welsh Pony and Cob Society listed judges);
- individuals who use our website;
- individuals who subscribe to our newsletters or updates; or
- individuals who engage with us on social media.

In the sections below, when referring to the individuals listed above, we use the terms "you" or "your".

WHAT'S OUR APPROACH TO PRIVACY?

We take your privacy extremely seriously and want you to feel confident that your personal information is safe in our hands.

We will only use your personal information in accordance with data protection law applicable to England and Wales from time to time.

Under data protection law, when we use your personal information, we will be acting as a data controller. Essentially, this means that we will be making decisions about how we want to use your personal information and why.

Below, we summarise the main rules that apply to us under data protection law when we use your personal information:

1.	We must be upfront about how we intend to use your personal information and must use your personal information fairly. Providing privacy information to individuals (such as in this privacy notice) is one aspect of using personal information fairly.
2.	 We must only use your personal information if we have a legal basis to do so under data protection law. These legal bases include: That you have consented to our use of your personal information;
	 That we need to use your personal information to perform a contract between us (or to take steps at your request prior to entering into a contract);
	• That we (or someone else) has a legitimate reason for needing to use your personal information and those legitimate interests are not outweighed by your rights or interests. We must balance our respective rights and interests before we can rely upon this legal basis; and

	• We need to use your personal information to comply with laws we are subject to.
3.	We are only permitted to share your personal information with others in certain circumstances and if we take steps to ensure that your personal information will be secure.
4.	Generally speaking, we must only use your personal information for the specific purposes we have told you about. If we want to use your personal information for other purposes, we need to contact you again to tell you about this.
5.	We must not hold more personal information than we need for the purposes we have told you about and must not retain your personal information for longer than is necessary for those purposes (this is known as the "retention period"). We must also securely dispose of any information that we no longer need.
6.	We must ensure that we have appropriate security measures in place to protect your personal information.
7.	We must act in accordance with your rights under data protection law.
8.	We must not transfer your personal information outside the European Economic Area ("EEA") unless certain safeguards are in place. One such safeguard is that the personal data is only transferred to a country that has been approved by the European Commission as having an acceptable level of data protection law.

HOW WILL WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION?

How we will use your personal information, the legal bases we will rely upon, how long we will keep your personal information and other details will depend upon who you are and why we need your personal information in the first place.

WHEN WILL WE USE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION FOR DIRECT MARKETING?

In addition to data protection law, if we use your personal information for direct marketing purposes, we may also be subject to additional rules that regulate direct marketing. The term "direct marketing" essentially means directing marketing material or advertising at a particular individual.

To ensure compliance with both data protection laws and the specific rules relating to direct marketing, we will only use your personal information to tell you about our latest offers or to inform you of products and services which we think may be of interest to you in the circumstances outlined below:

Direct marketing	 We will only contact you in this way if you have given by post	us your express consent to do so.
Direct marketing by email, text or other forms of electronic communication	 We will only contact you in this way if: you have given us your express consent to do so; or you are an existing customer/member and we want to tell you about similar products or services that may be of interest to you and you have not opted out of receiving such communications.

Our legal bases for such processing under data protection law will either be your consent or reliance upon our legitimate interests in developing our business.

We will retain your personal information unless and until you inform us that you no longer wish to receive direct marketing information from us. You can ask us to stop sending direct marketing to you at any time by contacting us using the details set out in this privacy policy or by clicking on the "unsubscribe" link within such electronic correspondence.

WHEN WILL WE SHARE YOUR PERSONAL INFORMATION WITH OTHERS?

Sometimes, we will need to share your personal information with others. This section sets out details of who we will share your personal information with and why. It also tells you about our legal basis for doing so under data protection law and steps we will take to protect your personal information.

We will never sell your personal information on to third parties.
